Epixel Solutions Achieves ISO 9001:2015 Certification Milestone!

Press Release: 20 April 2018

Epixel solutions Pvt. Ltd. recently achieved a status of becoming an ISO certified software firm who offers services across the globe.

[San Bruno, CA, USA] The IT giants, Epixel Solutions recently join the ISO 9000 family by achieving the ISO 9001:2015 certification. With a steady growth in the IT industry, the team is meeting every organization standards with ensured services and client requirements satisfaction.

Epixel as a brand is known for their web-based product – "Epixel MLM Software". The package meets every premium standard with wide popularity and solved out every difficulty faced in network marketing business. With the latest features and integrations, they have been on the road of success from the mid part of 2009.

ISO 9001:2015 certification is one of the most dignified international achievements for following the criteria of quality management system as well as the best customer focus and top management with innovative approaches. Well, the company branches out in India, USA, Hong-Kong, and a marketing office in Switzerland. The tech start-up is located down in the heart of Palakkad and has opened up a digital solution with latest technologies.

"Epixel Solutions has an excellent talent in our team line-up who is well experienced in various domains like programming, designing, testing, technical support, branding and much more. Look ahead for our name in the future as we have already stepped upon the latest technologies like blockchain, cryptocurrency, ICO and much more with AI platform in our plans. We provide quality solutions for a vast future through deep researches, use-cases, digital analysis to meet every possible slot of business and technology. Remember our name, its "Epixel", cherish your E-life.", Dhanesh Haridas, Managing Director, Epixel Solutions

###